Popular Sightseeing Spots

■ Atomic Bomb Dome (Genbaku-dōmu)

This is a building that was destroyed on the 6th of August, 1945, by the first atomic bombing in human history. The building was originally the Hiroshima Prefectural Industrial Promotion Hall. Now it is known as a symbolic place, as a tragic reminder of the destructive force of nuclear weapons. The site was designated as a World Heritage site in 1996.

■ Hiroshima Castle(Hiroshima-jo)

This castle, also known as "Carp Castle," was built by Terumoto Mori in 1589. It was completely destroyed by the atomic bomb and was rebuilt in 1958. Now it is a history museum centered on Samurai culture, and exhibits Hiroshima castle artifacts that were excavated such as gold leaf castle roof tiles.
